

This is not a service that I use everyday of my life, but it is a beneficial service because with the local stations, I am required to wait until the music or commercials are finished in order to hear the weather or traffic. I really like knowing all I have to do is switch over to my local station on my XM reciever and have the weather and traffic right when I want it.